

Art History Research

Once you have selected your painting, a good place to start looking for additional information would be: <http://www.artcyclopedia.com> or <http://www.artchive.com>. These sites will likely send you other places to look as well.

Artist's Name _____

Artist's Birthdate _____

Artist's Nationality or Home Country _____

Movement of Art associated with _____

What makes the Artist's work unique? _____

What factors influenced your artist's work? _____

In what way was your artist's work important in the history of art? _____

Interesting facts about your artist:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

4. _____

5. _____

Create a 3-5 minute podcast that highlights the work of your artist. Images that you might want to consider using are: images created by your artist, an image of your artist, your artist's signature, things that influenced your artist, the artist's home country, them growing up, etc.